, Alfred the Great, King West Saxons

Born: 849, Wantage,Dorset,England
Acceded: 23 APR 871, Kingston-upon-Thames, Surrey
Died: 28 OCT 899
Interred: Hyde Abbey, Winchester
Notes:

Reigned 871-899. He prevented the Danish conquest of England, defeating them at Edington(878) after a campaign of guerrila warfare. After his victory he allowed the Danes to keep their conquests in Mercia nd East Anglia provided that Guthrum, their King, was converted to Christianity. Alfred built a navy of Warships to defend the south coast against further Danish invasions (885-86 ;892-96) and protected Wessex with a chain of fortifications. He took London (886), this gaining control of all England except the Danish areas.

, Trór (Thor)

Notes:

Fostered in Thrace by a certain war-duke called Lóríkus. He was goodly to look at with hair faireer than gold. When he was 12 he was so strong he could lift 10 bear skins. He killed is foster father and mother (Lora) and took the kingdom of Thrace. He then travelled the earth, it is claimed, killing Giants Dragons and many beasts. He met his wife in the north, where she was a prophetess.
